

30 July: Registration and Opening Diner Breakwater Lodge and Beijing Orchid Restaurant
		Exhibition Hall	Faculty Hall	Executive Hall
Thursday, 31 July	8.30 - 10.30am	TM1 Religious rituals and the environment	TM2 Religious texts and emerging eco-theologies	TM3 Philosophical & psychological perspectives on religion & the environment
	Tea and Coffee
	11am - 12.30pm	Keynote Lecture: Prof. Bron Taylor Exhibition Hall
	Lunch
	2 - 4pm	TA1 Religious Ritual and Social Capital Formation in South Africa	TA2 Ecological readings of the Old Testament in African contexts	TA3 Teaching Religion and Ecology: Engaging Teaching Methodologies and Practices for Embodied Learning
	Tea and Coffee
	4.30 - 5.30 pm	South African Faith Communities' Environment Institute (SAFCEI)
6- 7pm	Plenary Lecture: Prof Victor Molobi Exhibition Hall
Friday, 1 August	8.30 - 10.30am	FM1 Religious Institutions, development and management of the environment	FM2 "If all the trees on earth were pens..." (Quran 31: 27): Intersections between Botanic Knowledge and Writing Practices in West African Islam
	Tea and Coffee
	11am - 12.30pm	Research Methodology: Study of Religion Exhibition Hall
Lunch

	2 - 4 pm	FA1 Wilderness in / as Sacred Space	FA1 Nature, Religion, Colonial and Postcolonial Modernity in Africa
	4pm-6pm	AASR Business Meeting: Exhibition Hall
Saturday, 2 August	8.30-10.30am	SM1 Food, agriculture and religion	SM2 Politics, education and religion in Africa
	Tea and Coffee
	11am-12pm	Plenary Lecture: Prof Ernst Conradie Exhibition Hall
	12-1.30pm	Plenary Session: Publish or Perish? The Politics of Academic/Scholarly Publishing, Grant Writing and Job Market Realities Exhibition Hall
	Lunch
	2.30-4.30pm	SA1 Women religious scholars and activists in dialogue on Southern African women's ecological wisdom	SA2 Public Religion and Issues of Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa	SA3 God, gods, ancestors and the environment
	Tea and Coffee
	5-6pm	Concluding Plenary Reflections Bron Taylor, Madipoane Masenya (ngwan'a Mphahlele), Elias Bongmba		